exists to create a Catholic learning environment that nurtures the total person in a family-like atmosphere.*

January 20, 2012

Dear Parents, Guardians, and Teachers:

The students participated in a Respect Life Prayer Service, which included the Rosary, today in church. The anniversary of Roe v. Wade is Sunday.

Two permission slips are in the family folders today for Catholic Schools Week trips. The February calendar will help you navigate that week. It includes reminders about student attire for each day of CSW. If your children are reading at the weekend masses January 2 or 29, please have them prepare by going over the reading and practicing clear enunciation; the mass coordinators for each parish will give the students the readings ahead of time.

Cacie Bedrosian, Emily Veasman, and Kaitlyn Neubert are registered to participate in the Regional Bellarmine Speech League Meet at Holy Family School in Freeburg tomorrow. Best wishes, ladies! Thanks to Mrs. Cathy Engelmeyer who will be representing Visitation Inter-Parish School as a judge at that event.

Friday, January 27, is the HSA Dance at KC Hall for Grades 6, 7, and 8.

Thank you for your support.

Blessings!

Principal Linda Stuckenschneider
